“ George and I grew up during the early 70's, best man at my wedding, worked and traveled together. I know next time we'll meet he'll say, "Hey Butch, Far Out". He has a wonderful family that he LOVED deeply and will be missed.

“ Oh George, Your seat at my bar will always be saved for you! I had so many great conversations with you, especially after you came home and shared all of your stories and pictures with me from the adventure you had been on for so long. Now you are onto a new adventure, watching over all of us you know we need it and your family, you will be remembered by many and missed dearly. Ill set you're seat up for you on your birthday so dont be late! til then R.I.P Trip

“ George was a big part of my childhood. I grew up with Angie and Aarron, with many memories. We had pig roast, one where the pig caught fire. Angie and I flooded the bathroom floor by leaving the sink on to fill water balloons that we rolled on the front porch. It went to the apartment down stairs. Let's just say we got in a lot of trouble..lol I was glad that George got to meet my children and my husband as well. He was a good friend to my family and will never be forgotten. Say Hi to my grandma for me. Love you. Harmonie McFaddenFilburn
