“ Dear Ellen and family, I have had the pleasure of calling you & Rudy my God Parents & I believe my God Father is now enjoying the fruits of his labors as he has entered into his eternal reward. I remember Rudy as always smiling, soft-spoken and gentle. I have been blessed to have you as my God Parents, and I pray God's peace and comfort for you in this time of loss.

“ I met George through his membership in the train club. He was a good friend. He schooled me how to bid and what to look for at auctions. I have fond memories of several trips to auctions we made together in Canada, Michigan and Indiana. My condolences to Ellen and his family.

“ I too, remember attending Our Lady of Sorrows Church and School where my brother Allen and Rudy became friends. I also remember Rudy. What a nice long friendship between the two families all these years. My sincere sympathy and prayers for all the Schachermeyer family.

“ Dear Ellen and family, Judy said it just as I, too, remember Rudy. Always a big, happy smile on his face. I took what I believe is the last photo of my dad, Allen, and Rudy together, on Sept. 30, 2007. My parents always speak so highly of the Schachermeyer's, and I'm glad our families became acquainted through the years. Rest in peace, Rudy.

“ I Allen was in the first grade with Rudy at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Detroit. At that time he was called Rudy, I think because his father's name was George. We both got married about the same time and predicted how many children we would have. We both did have large families.
