“ George was always sweet, funny, and so gregarious and will be missed by many. God's blessings to Mary Ann and family as they navigate a new chapter without him, may they find peace knowing he was so loved and with such a great love, sadly comes great grief when someone passes. Thinking of you all, prayers for you all for strength xo Chuck and Holli

George was my brother in every sense of the word...he married my sister 48 years ago! He was an integral part of my life, always there lending support, supplying jokes and a lot of good times..we will miss him most definitely but consider having known him a blessing..Rest in peace dear brother...love, Sudy
