“ Once again this year, we wish to express deepest sympathies to the entire Seefeld family. It has been our lucky fortune and honor to have met and known George "Mr. Seefeld" and his family. I first met George nearly 50 years ago...and still remember that first meeting clearly as he sat upon the livingroom sofa in the Linwood house still dressed in work clothes from Ford and winding down. He was usually fairly quiet around me but was always accepting...when he did speak, it was always a significant message and I'd listen carefully. We will always miss and will fondly remember both George and Ann Seefeld of Linwood in Royal Oak...the parents of a remarkable Royal Oak family and life long friends. God speed George Seefeld. You will be thought of often and missed. Dave & JoAnn Edwards
