“ I am so sorry to hear that George has passed away. He helped me with computer issues at work several times. He was always kind and patient. May he rest in peace.

“ George was not only an incredible colleague but a Man that I considered a personal friend. George was always a stand up straight forward kind of guy that would do anything and everything that he could to help anyone out. This incredible human being will be dearly missed by all that worked with him, respected him and that had the pleasure of knowing him.
All of my thoughts and prayers go out to all family and friends. We know have another angel looking over us all.

Rest in peace George, "My Brother"

“ George was a great guy. I knew him from high school and we had being big 3 Stooges fans in common. Then when I started playing in a band he would fix our equipment and "hot rod" my amps. He'd try crazy things like putting TV tubes in my bass amp, always looking for that unique sound. He played a bit of bass himself. When George would come see us play I knew it would be a fun night. Rest in Peace George!

“ George wrote great poetry in high school and read them to me one day while waiting for German class to start. They were very thoughtful and creative.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. It was a joy to work in the presence of George. He brought an exuberance to technology which on some days was part of the reason I looked forward to work. George was steadfast, honest and unwavering in his pursuits. I missed our talks but I will never forget the warmth he brought to the office each and every day.

Rest In Heaven, my friend.

“ George was a co-worker, team member and friend and a more gentle soul, there never was. He would be the last face I'd see before leaving work and there were days when I was done for the evening and ready to walk out the door we'd get into a 20 or 30 minute discussion about movies, tv, games, etc... And, he was genuinely funny. There were so many unexpected lines from George that would make you laugh because you didn't see it coming.

I would say I'm going to miss George but, that wouldn't be truthful. I already miss him.

Rest easy buddy,

“ George was one of the most genuine and sweet people I've ever met in my life. Always willing to help, always willing to listen, always willing to provide sage advice about anything from life all of the way to who played the best iteration of Dr. Who :). A nerd's nerd through and through. You're greatly missed already buddy.
