“ Dear Susan and Family, we are so sorry and shocked to read in paper of George's death in Paris. George told me once he planned to take you there someday for a honeymoon - to be a surprise. He must have been excited and happy to be there with you. Susan, I had a stroke and cannot attend the funera, but my thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family. God bless you and give you strength in these difficult days. Call me when you can...248-642-1688. Tony

“ Over the last several years you have shared snapshots of your life. Even with that limited view I could tell that you shared a lot of good and a lot of pain. I hope that the pain can pass and that the good can go on. I am only as far as the keyboard if I can help.
