“ From Dan Haughey & Deb Hess-Haughey, East Moline, IL; Jerry's cousin, son & daughter-in-law to the late Ellen E. Hazelton Haughey. Dear Jan & Family, please accept our deepest condolences. Jerry was so loved. We can remember him from the Hazelton Reunions in Ohio, and one or two likely included him at the plate in a family softball game, with kids and grownups. He was fun. He will be missed. His memorial service (online) was beautiful. Our hearts are with you. Peace and God's love.-- Dan & Deb.

“ Sending our love and prayers to Jan and family during this difficult time. We will miss Jerry very, Very much. We look forward to seeing him, and other family members who are waiting for us at the 'ultimate reunion.' Though I knew Jerry only for these last few years at the reunions I loved his wit, his love of some college team from 'Michigan' (not to be mentioned by Hazelton's from OH-IO) and the opportunities play cards with him and the family. Thanks Jerry for keeping me straight on the steps for running a proper meeting during the reunions. And I know you will be there for me next year! All our Love, Mark and Glenda
