“ Hi Maggie and Family - I just went in this page - never did one like this before. My first remembrance of Jerry is when I was a little girl and before you were married, and he roomed at Mrs. Willson's house at 133 Baldwin, my street. He was so good looking. Here is a big hug - and I'll see you tonight sometime. Love and God Bless, Peggy

“ I am sorry for your loss. I was fortunate to know "Mr. Jones" through Edgewood Hunt Club. He was an important part of Camp's history and my family's history. He told me more than a few stories of hunting with my grandfather, Ben Calvin. Jerry held a special place with my father and Dad was sure to impart to my brother and me the same respect for Mr. Jones. My thoughts are with you all. Mark Calvin
