“ I knew Gerald for a brief sliver of our life in high school. Our time shared revolved mostly around computers, D&D or the mutual band camp hazings we both endured. We spent many a late night rolling the "20" sided die. He was a good guy and wicked smart. Say Hi to Steve up there for me. "Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy" - Eskimo Proverb

“ How can I lift the family up in their time of grief and remember Gerald, perhaps by sharing this memory. I met Gerald when he was a baby and I fell in love with the tiny boy upon our meeting. I was his baby sitter off and on for many years. Watching him grow was a delight to my heart. His smile lit up his whole face. He was happy monkeying around as most little boys are. When he moved to Michigan we kept track of his school years and later his entrance into the military. But being able to attend his wedding and meet his then wife to be was such fun. A beautiful bride and handsome groom. We saw each other occasionally over the years and I always enjoyed our time together no matter how brief. Now my friend has moved on but I will remember his smile and his sense of humor forever. Gerald rest in peace and may I meet you once again in a place free from pain and sorrow. Love to all the family.

“ As his cousin, my heart goes out especially to his wife, children, brother and Mother. I am sorry I never met Gerald but I do know that he was revered by his parents and other family members.

“ I am terribly saddened by Gerald's passing and will fondly remember our last visit @ Mandi's... with me getting on his last nerve asking computer questions...which resulted in his refusal to give me his e-mail address lol he was smart. My thoughts are with you and the children and I will keep you all in my prayers. Much love and peace be with you all...Patty
