“ Jerry was a great man-he always made you laugh! I've known Jerry since his nephew D.J. Was a little boy and friends with my brother and we met up again when Jerry moved out this way.He would take us all on hayrides and help my husband Joe with welding stuff and very good with my children! We will miss you very much!

“ I have know Jerry my whole life. He was really good friends with my dad John. One of the biggest memories of him was when he would call everyone "joe". He even bought a flipping coin from the gun club that said " joe joe". He started the biggest trend with that. Even my three year old son now calls everyone "Joe". I can still remember when he came to my sons birthday party and bought him all kinds of things. I have a picture of him holding him and feeding him a bottle. He was such a great person. He loved kids! He was so excited when he was finally going to have a grandchild of his own. He was also an amazng cook. He was really good at making pizza. He was just one of those people who could give you advice about anything. You could always talk to him. He was very loved and will be greatly missed!!

“ i've known Jerry my whole life, he grew up with my dad John. he was a great person, one of the nicest people i have ever met. i remember going to his house and riding around on his golf cart all day, and eating french fries, the only time i ever drank pop out of a cup with ice was at Jerrys house. he had a nickname for me too "Cher" i didnt think i looked like her, but he did. even though i wasnt extremly close with him, this whole thing affected me alot, and im going miss him so much. i wish his family the best. I love you Jerry!!!

“ Jerry was our friend and neighbor for eleven years and we have many fond memories of his spending time with our three children. He call my daughters, Angie & Allie over when he was in the mood to cook. When our son Jack was born, he nicknamed him "Jackson" and Jack still talks about how his housle was so cool because of all the arcade games. We have so many fond memories of Jerry and how he enjoyed life.
