“ To my dear cousins and their families ... I will tell you that he was one of a kind and that missing him will be part of what will happen but remembering him will be the greater part of what will happen.
Not forgetting means not letting go ... forever and always~ Cousin, “ Gerry was a dear brother to me. His many talents were too many to list, but he sharpened my knives, designed and built a corn cutter, and when his eyesight was really failing worked hard to screw nails in my cutting board. For years after June died I drove him to band concerts and enjoyed this time immensely. After the concerts Gerry cooked a great meal and the conversation was hard to stop. Our Dear Lord knew in His infinite wisdom the time to carry our dear one to heaven.

“ I hope this works third try. Uncle Gerry use to call me "my Rosie, Oh my Rosie, my little Rosie" always with hug so strong and sure. He has gone home to be with his two only brothers, raise a martini for us all. we love and miss you. You have been our strength and backbone, teacher and caretaker; brother, uncle, father, grandpa, great-grand-pa and friend. Say hello to my papa and uncle. Our love and condolences to Uncle Gerry's family and friends. Always love your cousin Rosemary and Todd Watts

“ I loved this man like my own uncle. He was one of a kind, but pretty darn close to his dear brothers Tom and Frank. I know they celebrate a glorious reunion. God bless all his family as the grieve for their loss but celebrate this great life.
