“ There comes a time ... when everyone should stop and reflect on what is really important. Invariably that reflection turns to the people who formed the way we live and love . Trudy was and is a person who loved deeply and was deeply loved. I am a better person for having known her.

“ I'll miss you Mom and our daily telephone talks. As painful as it was to see you sick, I will always cherish the time spent with you in the hospital and at home in hospice. You taught me how to live and then you taught me how to die; with patience, grace and dignity. I will always love and remember you. You will always be with me Mom. Thank you for being my Mom. Love Anne

“ I'm so lucky to have had the pleasure of knowing such a wonderful woman. I'll miss our chats, your beautiful garden, your laugh and most of all you. Thank you for everything. Rest in peace Trudy, I love you.
