“ Brian Stacer û March 18th, 2005 û My deepest sympathy goes out to the family on your loss. I have very fond memories of my childhood when we all lived together on Young St, Waterloo Ontario. I spent every Friday night with your parents, enjoying some family time together. Over the years I have thought of Aunt Gert on many occasions and I am sorry I did not see her once more.

“ From my entire family to yours the deepest sympathy. Let God welcome her into his kingdom . Some of my fondest memories are growing up two doors down . Everyone from Gert on down was always so nice to my family and treated us as one of their own. Over the years my mom and Gert stayed friends updating one another on the family's , and passing on to their kids. We are sorry for your loss.
