“ I am so very sorry for your loss. To see a loved one suffering is hard, but losing a loved one is even harder. I hope you can take comfort in the hope found in the scriptures at John 5:28, 29 and Rev. 21:3, 4 knowing that God always keeps his promises. Please accept my condolences.

“Gina was good-looking, liked Harley's and loved cousin's shots, that makes her ok in my book! All kidding aside she inspired me with her love for her family and by licking her wounds and giving them all of her strength to move forward. R.I.P.

“ I am gonna miss this woman with all my heart, I loved her. Gina was a lot of fun to be around, and her positive attitude was something that just came natural to her. She loved her boys, she would do anything in the world for them. A true Mama Bear, very protective. I can relate.:- She was also very proud to be a soldier's wife. Very Loyal. She loved her family deeply, and anyone that was blessed enough to be called her friend. She loved to do fun things. To make all the kids smile and laugh she wore a pink wig to the kid's school last year. All of Seth's classmates thought she was the coolest Mom, and you know what, she was. That was Gina, take a completely normal day into something exceptional. Those kids will remember that forever. I know the gates opened widely for this beautiful soul, and I know my Rebel Girl will forever be watching over her family from up above. And I know..... Heaven just got a lot more fun. Love you. God Bless The Maskell Family, Lu Weaver

My most cherished thoughts of Gina are her sweet smile, hilarious sense of humor, and her care for others! We were probably closest in 5th and 6th grade and I cherish the friendship that we had! “ Glenn, Evan & Seth, you don't know me but I know Bob & Sue. My husband and I own an RV Park Azalea Acres in south Alabama and Bob stayed in our park while he drove truck for a concrete company here. Sue would fly down to visit him once a month. I have such pleasant memories of their stay with us. I have a heavy heart for what Gina and your family endured during her illness. My husband is battling cancer himself and is in a fight for his life. I know how difficult that journey is. God bless you and your sons and may you find comfort as you know Gina is resting in the arms of the Heavenly Father. In Sympathy, Gaye Appelman

“ Gina and I met at a yellow ribbon when Glenn and Kevin were deployed. She was not sure about the goings on with the event and needed to talk. Military spouses are always there for each other she fit right in. Since, we have kept in touch I know she was always upbeat in her posts and fought hard. She did really love her boys. May God be with you Glenn, Seth and Evan in this time. And take some comfort in the knowledge she is not suffering any more.
