“ I met Joanne on a dreaded day. I was only 5 or 6 when I was brought over by my Mom. She was to be our new baby sitter. This was my worst nightmare. At my age I could raise myself, or so I thought. God had his own plans. Turned out I needed another Hānai Grandmother in my life. She taught me many things, respect, love, honesty, humility, not least of which discipline. She became one of the most important and influential people in my life. It's bitter sweet now. Knowing she's gone, yet still with us. Now living the perfect eternity in Heaven. Until we see you again,
