“ I am saddened to learn of Glen's passing. We met at work and became good friends. His wide span of knowledge and keen insight led to many interesting conversations on many topics. He followed my son's progression through high school football and told me stories of his own football days. I will truly miss his pleasant attitude. The office will never be the same without his smiling face.

My thoughts and prayers are with his family for their loss of a very special caring man.

“ Glen was the kindest and nicest man. He had a great sense of humor. I once heard him say "you can get a great deal done if you don't care who gets the credit". He was very talented, but unassuming. He sincerely cared for others and was always ready to lend a helping hand.

I know this is a terrible time for you all, and wish there were something I could do to ease it for you. Please take gentle care of yourselves.

“ Dear Allison and the Voglesong family,
My thoughts are with you during this time of sorrow following the loss of your father. While I did not have the pleasure to meet him, I can tell through you, that he was a fine man who will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege to know him.
I would like to wish you comfort during this difficult time, and my deepest sympathies go to you and your family.
If there is something I can do to help you during this time, please do not hesitate to call on me.
Wishing you peace and comfort,
David Burden

“ Dear Cheri, Allison and Fred,
Our hearts are with you at this deeply sad time. Glen was a gentle giant with a great ❤️ and capacity for love. Les and I cherish our memories of fun times together in recent years. He will always be a part of my fond Alma College memories too, where it all began and life long friendships forged. We will miss his brilliant mind and history lessons. Most of all, I will miss his big, long hugs and warmth, the kind that stay with you. Although we are missing him terribly, this isn't goodbye, but farewell dear friend, until we meet again in paradise.
With much love, Kim and Les Breuer

“ Cheri, Allison, Fred,

We join our grieving to yours for this great man; a man with a heart even bigger than he was.

Memory holds a cherished picture of bygone happy summer days up north. Farewell is bittersweet. Bitter on the day of parting, sweet knowing full-well we shall meet again. Happier days, like those of old and more, lie ahead. Believe and it shall be so.

Until that time, you remain always, and so fondly, in our thoughts and prayers.

With love,

The Ropps

Cheri, I'm so sad to hear that Glen died. It was nice running into you two at the Burns Dinner a couple years ago. And of course so many fond memories from years ago. Who knew such a kind and gentle giant could also be so much fun! Well, you, of course.
