

Glenda S. Koshurba

May 29, 1935 - May 25, 2025

Glenda Koshurba, a devoted wife, cherished mother, proud grandmother and loving great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on May 25, 2025. Glenda was the beloved wife of the late James Koshurba, with whom she shared a life full of love, laughter, and devotion. She was a loving mother to Greg Koshurba and Amy LaFrance, whose lives she touched deeply with her unwavering support and gentle strength. Glenda found immense joy in her role as a grandmother to Nikolas, Kaitlin, Ashley, Kristin, and Tyler, and was equally proud to be a great-grandmother to Isabella and Aubree. Her legacy of warmth and kindness will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She was a dear sister to the late Wanda Rondeau, Delmar Williams, Arlton Williams, Joseph Williams, and Quindon Williams, and held close the memories of their times together. A creative soul, Glenda had a passion for crafting and needlepoint, and she delighted in painting — each piece reflecting her vibrant spirit and attention to detail. But above all, Glenda treasured the time spent with her family. Her home was always filled with love, stories, and the laughter of generations. She will be remembered for her gentle heart, her artistic talent, and the love she shared so generously. A visitation will take place at the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Rd. (3Blks E. of Van Dyke) Utica, on Thursday (May 29th) from 2pm - 8pm. A funeral service will take place on Friday (May 30th) at 12pm (noon) at the funeral home.
