“ I remember the first time I met Gloria. Joanne and I were going to a high school activity and she came to meet my Grandmother and have coffee together while we were gone. I adored her since then and remember thinking what a wonderful Mother she was. She had such a welcoming spirit and so much fun to talk with. I loved her dearly. My husband and I will miss her but always remember her with much fondness. Dance to Heaven, Gloria!

“ I met Gloria in the late 1980's while working in a hair salon in Madison Heights ... I met Joanne first , she became my client and then also a friend. I then began doing Gloria's hair also, and became a friend of the family. I continued being Gloria's stylist until she became ill. Gloria's loved to tell stories of her life, she loved cooking and would talk endlessly on Home-improvement, she enjoyed the entire process !!
