“ My Aunt "goia", or Gloria was an amazing woman who I grew to love and admire in my middle age. She was intelligent, stalwart and a rock who "rolled" through her challenges with a wit and "harshness" few would encounter. This woman, a true woman, endured many challenges and unfairness in her early life which she overcame. I admire her and wish I had the forethought to spend more time with her when I was young. We had many conversations as of late, during my mother's sickness and death. We both came of the understanding that we were very much alike in our "older age". I wanted to visit with her very much however, Uncle Don was sick then and it wasn't a good time. Even after his passing, she wasn't up for a visit and coffee. As I understand her now, Aunt Gloria was an interesting, strong and intelligent, independent thinking woman whom I will miss and whom this world will miss!

“ Gloria was such a huge vibrant and loving woman. During my late teens and early twenties I spent a lot of time around her and just remember that Gloria always was fun, and ready to voice her opinion whether you wanted to hear it or not!! I have all good memories of her and my deepest sympathy and prayers go out to the family.

“ Aunt Gloria, you were definitely one of the coolest Aunties I (we) had! We knew your heart was breaking and you were lost when Uncle Don passed. Now, you're together again, forever. I'll always remember (and smile!!!!) about how you would stick up for me wearing my Bib Overalls....your words, exactly: "F them all, who are they, wear what you want, I might even get some"!!! Definitely going to miss you, but I (we) know you are happy and at peace, now. Save a spot for us, Aunt Gloria, we'll see you (and Uncle Don) on the other side!!!

“ Gloria never failed to bring a interesting view to our Lioness meetings, along with her lemon bars to the bake sales (which usually vanished first off the sale table!) She and I had a shared art experience-we both had our portraits done in charcoal sketch in the streets of MontMartre outside Paris (albeit several years apart).

*Dormi bene, mia sorella, fino a quando ci incontreremo di nuovo...
(sleep well, my sister, until we meet again...)*
