“ I am so sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you be comforted by our ... God and Father of our Lord... the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God". 2 Cor. 1: 3, 4. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Please also find comfort in the following: John 11:11 where Jesus said, "...Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from the sleep." Our Heavenly Father holds out the hope of the resurrection and the ability to see our loved ones again.

“ Remembering the days on Wabash when we would hang out in your bedroom playing 45s, or on the front porch playing the "car game," which I can't even remember exactly what the car game was, but remember playing it all the time, or making gum wrapper chains. Bleaching our hair with peroxide and wearing fake braids. Walking over to the store on Puritan and having all the guys whistle at you! Not believing Ma when she broke her arm and hiding from her when a bad storm went through. That was kind of bad! Going to the Tea Rooms in Detroit and getting our fortunes told. I love all that kind of stuff now because of you. More recently, meeting you and Sam at the Detroit casinos until you weren't feeling well enough to go. Will miss you, Gloria. My heart breaks for Sam, Donald, Michael, and Raymond. You are a sweet angel up in Heaven with no more pain. God bless.
