“ Dear Gordie, You were such a wonderful, caring man and very talented man. From the trains that you built to the fine details on the wooden puppets! I can still hear my front door open and my mom yelling...."Gordie's here"! I will always cherish the times after I cleared your snow or cut your grass, you would insist that I come in and have a cup of coffee with you. You shared so many interesting stories with me. You had quite the full life! You had to be the most organized man that I ever met. Geez, you have every possible tool that one could think of, and you knew exactly where to find them. I will certainly miss you! May you rest in peace. -Love Pam

May you rest in peace. - Love, Charlotte
