

Gordon W. Haglund

November 14, 1928 - November 9, 2022

Gordon Waldo Haglund was reunited with the love of his life Adeline in the early morning hours of November 9th, 2022. He left this earth at the home where he, and his beloved wife Adeline, lived and raised their family, for 70 years.

Dear and devoted father of Allen (Barbara), the late Wally, Linda Haglund-Hazy, Cynthia (Dave) Biros, Sandy (Leonard) Framalin and the late Steve Framalin. Cherished grandfather of 13 and loving great-grandfather of 3.

Gordon was born in Grasston, Minnesota, on November 14th , 1928, to parents Walter and Isabel (Larson) Haglund. He loved his brothers Eugene, Sheldon, Dwayne and adored his sister Marion and mourned the loss of his sister Janet who passed in childhood.

Gordon “Gordie” Haglund was a man of few words and lived his life the only way he knew how, with an iron will, and it served him well his entire life; including his dedication to his country, while in the Army, during the Korean conflict . To his children Allen, G. Wally, Linda, Cynthia and Sandra he was larger than life. He was creative, hardworking and a self-made structural steel engineer and detailer. He, along with his beloved wife Adeline, created a solid foundation for his children. The legacy of his tenacity, honesty, and “True Grit” will forever be an inspiration to anyone who truly knew him.

“ The Guida Family was fortunate enough to live, and grow up next to the Haglund family for many years. The Haglund's were the original home on North Wilson, that we all called home. The entire neighborhood considered them the matriarch's of North Wilson. We grew up together....played together, fought and yes grieved together during family losses. The thought of Gordy and Adeline being reunited warms my heart. The old neighborhood will never be the same. RIP my friend.

“ Addie and Gordy were the most wonderful neighbors and I was blessed to grow up with them in my life. They would always welcome us into their home, Gordy would share fishing stories with Dad and I loved all the games in the basement. Gordy once caught me and my friend sneaking out at night, pushing the car down the street without turning it on. He saw me the next day and unassumingly asked if we were having some car problems the night before, before giving me a big smile. I don't think he ever told my dad :). I am sorry to hear of his passing but know he lived a big full life and left behind a beautiful family. I am sorry that I will not be able to attend any of the services but send love from me and all my family. My condolences and prayers, Andy Englehart, wife Sarah and kids Ryan and Emily.
