“ Charles & Edgewood Conley Clan Just wanted to let everyone know how sorry we were to hear about Grace. I will never forget the great presents she brought to the Edgewood Block as we grew up. From the knitting parties we went to, to the Block parties you all practically hosted. She was always the sweetest and best. I remember the blast she was on the Frankfort vacation I got to share with you and the great fried cheeseburgers she always made for us. Her gambling intellect is legendary as I remember her not only teaching me 31 for nickels but helping to mold me into one of the finest players in the state, well at least of the Hayes clan. The thing I will never forget about her most was her wonderful, wonderful laugh. God Bless and our prayers are with you. Greg Hayes and Family

“ It was always a pleasant experience for everyone when Gracie was at the lake. She thoroughly enjoyed sitting on the deck watching the freighters go by on Lake Huron. She always had to have a project to work on -- her crosstitch and then her pillows -- she did not want to be idle! I will miss you Gracie. Susan
