“ I have so many memories of Aunt Grace. Growing up she would bring us new clothes for Christmas and for Easter. She had such a generous heart. Her laugh is what I'm going to miss the most. Watching her and her brothers tease each other brought lots of laughs. Brent would get into the fun too. Tell him Hi for me Aunt Grace as well as all our other angels. I will always fondly remember going to your beautiful church will you and having our stuffed french toast at the restaurant down the road. RIP

“ One of many memories was when Jerry, Grace's brother and our family went to visit Grace. She was making stuffed cabbages and asked us to stay for dinner and did we ever enjoy them. So I asked how she made them and it was with tomato soup. That was one of the best things she ever taught me and our family of five nieces and nephews, Judy, Steve who visited Ralph and her many times while in the seminary, Jeanette, Roger who would visit them while taking classes for E.D.S. and Colleen, will be forever grateful to her. Jerry and I, (Maryellen, Jerry's wife) would go and visit her and go to St. Clements church on several occasions when we were able. Grace, God has welcomed you to His heavenly kingdom where you can enjoy Ralph, Duey, Mom & Dad, brother Ray and her sister-in-law, Shirley, and brother Jerry. May You rest in peace. Our family extends to all her family and friends our deepest sympathy. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you. Maryellen

“ Thank you for being such a wonderful friend since my childhood. I was very happy to see you on the bowling league I joined. It gave us time to recall the silly things we did with your nieces and nephews. We loved the whole family, Aunt Grace, but you were very special to all of us. Rest in peace, sweetheart.
