“ I only knew her through the quilts she shared with the Cameo quilter's guild, but knowing her daughter Jean I am sure she was a gracious lady. May her memory be a blessing.

“ Mom, we will miss you. You lived a beautiful life. You had many friends and loved ones.

"She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come." in Proverbs 31 describes you well.

We will miss your laugh, smile, cheerful calm demeanor, and kind words. We loved your stories. We loved your beautiful quilts and gardens. We will remember you always.

*Love,
Louise*

“ She sure was an awesome aunt to Mike & I. She was most welcoming to me when I married Mike & joined the Schlegelmann family. She will be missed by everyone who knew & loved her. I'm certain that when she entered the gates of heaven Jesus was there waiting with His arms wide opened and hugged her saying "welcome home sister". Right beside Jesus was sweet Uncle Fran saying "I have missed you dear".
