Gregory James Deakin

March 5, 1962 - April 22, 2026

Gregory James Deakin, born March 5, 1962, to Audrey and the late James Deakin, passed away on April 22, 2026, at the age of 64.

Greg was the beloved husband of Angela and a loving father to Alexis. He was a dear brother to James (Debora) and the late Robert T. Deakin (Rebecca, still living). He was the cherished son-in-law of Nancy Karus and the late Herman Karus, and brother-in-law of Kathy Masiarczyk (the late Joseph Masiarczyk). He was also a proud and devoted uncle to Adam, Alyssa, and Jacob.

Greg lived life with enthusiasm and curiosity. He enjoyed scuba diving, boating, camping, and snowmobiling, and could often be found playing pinball or working on cars. He had a special love for dogs-his own and others-and found joy in simply taking them for walks. He was a fan of classic movies, especially old Hollywood films and Star Trek.

Above all, Greg was a truly good man-kind, generous, and deeply devoted to his family. He was always willing to lend a hand, whether to a neighbor in need or a friend facing a challenge. Known for his ability to fix just about anything, Greg took pride in helping others when they needed it.

He was an active and dedicated member of the St. Isidore's Knights of Columbus #7200, where he volunteered his time in the kitchen for fish fries and pancake breakfasts. He also served on the initiation team and held an officer role, reflecting his commitment to service and community.

“ I met Greg a few years ago at church and during Knights of Columbus events. As part of the fish fry committee we spent quite a few mornings together cruising around town in Greg's truck listening to Yacht Rock like a couple of old geezers, picking up fish and other supplies for the fry. We were the same age so we quickly bonded over our shared experiences growing up in the 70s and 80s. It was as if we were brothers who grew up apart from one another. We shared a lot of laughs in the short time that I knew him. He will be missed. Scott
