“ I have so many fond memories of my Aunt Gwen,from when I was little kid,until the last few years when she and my Mom Donna,her sister would take trips to West Virginia to visit my cousin her nephew Kris. Gwen and Uncle Howard always treated me love and affection,and they will in my heart forever.I love you,and will miss you Aunt Gweny.

“ With sadness I read of Gwen's passing. She and Howard were longtime familiar faces around the Hornung household. To her children and their families--may you be comforted by the good your parents did for others and the witness they were of true Christ-like generosity. Those St. Vincent dezPaul men never stopped caring for those in need and would set aside anything when they got a call. Lesser known was the steady back-up provided by Gwen and Colette and Doris and the other wives who would take the cases that came in during their husbands work hours. So I rejoice that she has now finished her earthly duties and has joined her longtime friend Colette in eternal life.

“ Dear Kevin, Nicole and family: I have been blessed and honored to know your mom for the brief period of time that I did. Her social grace was always evident, along with her fine sense of humor. She brought sunshine to everyone. She encouraged those around her to do their best, and had a strong sense of empathy for those less fortunate. She was a class act yet humble and without arrogance. Again, thank you for allowing me to be a part of her life and yours. My deepest sympathy to you and your entire family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Teri

“ To Gwen Gwen was the first lady of No. Connecticut She was the neighborhood Mom She had five children of her own But she never asked where are you from? She cooked and sewed and cleaned each day And dressed her dolls to sell. And Howard was her soul-mate as anyone could tell. Gwen was an angel on her own So loving and caring and wise She created much happiness for her kids When older she called them â??the guysâ? As so with many it always happens That illness takes our memory away But she made the best of all she could For each and every day. Now she has gone with the angels Who will love her happy smile And she and Howard will once again Walk down that blessed aisle We will always miss you Gwennie. Love, June

“ The Beyellt family were our neighbors in the 1930's-40's. Our houses met near the alley way. All the kids played together, went to school and had birthday parties together. We'll miss her. Edna Mae, Doody and Bonnie Gorman

“ Aunt Gwen is a beautiful lady filled with love inside & out. I always remember the house on Connecticut being filled with wonderful treasures she arranged with so much care. I remember visiting my newly born cousins, & the joy that filled that home. I remember visiting & enjoying the humor shared at dinner and the "community" linen napkin which got passed around the table. The best parties were when the house was filled with Walkers & Beyettes celebrating holidays and birthdays. Thanks Aunt Gwen for all the parts of you I have within me. Claudia
