“ For years, going home to visit my parents included going to the "breakfast group" with my father and his friends--many of whom I knew from my childhood. I enjoyed getting to know them on another level--and to see my father's joy to be with his friends. Harold was among those my Dad felt closest to. I will forever remember him and be thankful for him. To his dear wife Mary, please know that your pain is a reminder of what a wonderful blessing you had in such a dear husband. I pray that the Lord will be with you in your abundant memories and grief. In the midst of your hurt, remember the promise we cling to by faith-- that the best is yet to come--all who share in faith in Jesus will share in the victory of the day of resurrection. May the Lord carry you until that day and especially this day.

“ Every time I think of Harold, I think of his big smile and hardy laugh. He would greet everyone with such kindness. He is now with those he loved as well on the other side, still smiling and I know, happy. Many prayers go out to you Auntie Mary, Carol and your entire family to the wonderful man in the light. May he continue to shine on you always. Lots of love and prayers, Denise, Mike, Michael, and Danielle
