“ My heart is broken because I just found out of Harold's passing. My Mom and Dad lived next to them on Deerpath in Evert. Harold is the one who found my Dad laying on the floor in his cabin. My Dad passed away in January of 2003 and Harold helped me through so many hard moments and was there for me. My heart is full of sorrow for the family. Harold, Mary Lou and my parents, Wilbur and Joan Lane are together once more. My condolences, Sherry Lane Garrett, IN.

“ Jerry, Pat, Greg, Sandy (Chris, Lynn, Ray/All): Mayra and I were so sorry to hear your dad, our beloved Uncle Harold, died yesterday. He was a great family and sports man and a pillar in the Michigan construction industry for a half century. What an awesome legacy with an amazing marriage and family. He demonstrated integrity, fortitude and sheer grit in the face of major life challenges. The world is a better place because of him. He was a role model worth emulating and, for me and our family, a true inspiration.

We thank God for his love of life that came from Our Heavenly Father and blessed us all from our early years forward. He not only cofounded the Michabo Lodge for our 5 families and 32 cousins, he basically turned it into a kids vacation paradise through his mastery of the skilled trades. Now he can enjoy Heaven's Paradise with our beloved Aunt Mary Lou.

*All our love,
Jeffrey G. Nutt (& Mayra)*
