“ Joyce, Daryl, and family; I didn't have the opportunity to meet your father in life while we were in school. However, having known the two of you, one could see that he instilled a great sense of family values and you carry those on to your own children and grandchildren. My sincere sympathies to the entire family.

“ My condolences to the entire Kaltz family.....I didn't know your dad well, but he must have been a great man to have raised a fine son as Daryl who is a legacy by living with class, honor and dignity as his dad taught him. May GOD comfort you all during this time of letting go. The memories of your dad will forever live in all your hearts and that is a great gift.
