“ It was such an honor to get to know Mr. Mac over the years. He always asked how family was, always had great things to say about everyone. He was a family man, wise man, he was also a gentleman. He will be missed but memories of him won't be forgotten.

“ Harry was a very good friend and he will be missed. We looked forward to seeing him when he came north. I can say Harry never said an unkind word for anyone while he was around us. And that says a lot about a person. We will meet again in a better place. The Tuch's

“ Mr. Mac was "good people" and always looked out for your best interest. Stan and I have known each other since middle school, so his parents were another set of parents for me when we were younger we had lots of them. I had a chance to visit Papa Mac recently- he shared some warm memories and some unknown family history with me, but really seemed to glow when reminicing about Mrs. Mac. He mentioned how she always kept him on the straight and narrow and that she was the love of his life. He was a bit stubborn too...did I mention he didn't care for doctors very much? However, his health didn't seem to stop him all the time as he was right there by my side helping me cut some tree limbs down in his front yard in the frigid cold weather last fall from his wheelchair, believe it or not. Certainly he loved his family very much as you could tell by the hundreds of pictures displayed throughout his home. Thanks for making me feel like family Papa Mac...rest in peace. Tom
