“ Our lives will never be the same. We will miss Aunt Hazel. Even at 102 she still laughed at something funny. She made the best of her final years, and truly was an inspiration. RIP Aunt Hazel... 🙏

“ Going to miss my aunt Hazel! Many memories over many years. She was always present for the holidays, birthdays and family gatherings. Well remember her plum brandy on occasion, and the hand made things she created.

“ My aunt was a woman of many talents. She was an excellent seamstress who made all my Barbie doll clothes, rode motorcycles when she was young, climbed the apple trees in her yard to gather the best apples for her pies, collected so many teddy bears they overwhelmed her home, then she moved onto collecting owls. Can't forget her love for their antique car club. But as a child, I couldn't wait to have her holiday cookies, they were the best. You could never call Hazel to chat, because she was never home, you had to schedule an appointment to see her. She cherished volunteering at the cardiologist office to serve snacks to waiting patients, she enjoyed visiting friends at her "hangout" Niki's restaurant in Royal Oak (closed in 2019). I only wished my Uncle Bob would have had more time to share with her and all their hobbies. And I wish I had spend more time with her and not let life get in the way. Rest in peace, Aunt Hazel, you desire it.

*Your niece,
Gloria*
