“ I am so very sorry to hear about this. Hazen was my supervisor when I started working at Oakland University in 2012. We worked the midnight shift together. He was always kind and supportive. We often had conversations that were spiritually based. I remember one time I was so worried about needing time off work for something. Hazen very calmly reminded me that Oakland University was here before me and would be fine during my time off. 😊 My prayers are going out for family and friends.

“ I am so sorry to learn of Hazen's passing. As many have said, Hazen was truly one of the good guys. He was friendly, outgoing and possessed a calm demeanor even when things were stressful. He was a joy with whom to work and interact.

“ My sincere sympathy to Ray and the rest of the Wilcox family. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I hope that in time you will be able to look back at all the memories that you have and they bring a smile to your face and your hearts may heal.

Hazen, my dear sweet friend....words cannot describe how heartbroken I am feeling right now with you passing away. You were a remarkable person in every way possible. You were not only my best friend, but a mentor and like a brother to me. You were always there for me through good times and bad. We have known each other 19 years and met through Weight Watchers. From the first time we met it seemed like we knew each other before hand. I will for sure miss our get togethers for lunch or dinner, going shopping or to movies, or just visit and catch up with one another, our daily text messages to one another, etc.

You showed me so many things about life. You were always so kind, generous and supportive. Your laugh was like no other. You were so smart and would not take no for an answer, hardworking and determined. I will forever cherish all the memories that we shared. You can now Rest In Peace my dear friend and no longer have to suffer. Although I will miss you dearly, God has gained another Angel in Heaven and I know you will be looking down on me. I know that your pain has ended my dear friend and that you have found peace and joy in your afterlife. I will think of you often and miss you dearly, but I know that we will meet again one day soon.

“ Sincere condolences to the family of Hazen Wilcox. I hope the abundance of shared memories brings you some measure of comfort as they form a powerful testimony of the lasting impact that Hazen's life had on the word around him.

His peaceful passing is characteristic of the prevailing atmosphere in my encounters with him. I had occasion to interact with Hazen in each of his OU work roles - and it was usually due to some circumstance that caused me to seek help. Hazen would always call upon his vast network of relationships to resolve the issue; and by the time our conversations were over, "peaceful" is what I felt.

Hazen's charitable spirit helped to make OU a more pleasant place to work. As a result, each of our encounters with him will keep his memory alive.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Ray and the Wilcox family. Many others have said this but I want to repeat it, Hazen was one of the nicest people. I cannot believe he is gone. We had many good laughs and long talks together. We also worked in the same department together for a short time and it was during that time that I learned he had nicknames for everyone, including those of us who worked with him, such as TZ for myself, Sister Ryckman for Gail and FBI for Kim and there are many others we cannot mention. He will be missed.

Ray, am so sorry for your loss. My prayers go out to you and your family. Especially, since I know that in the past you also lost a sister. So this must be twice as hard for you to go through. My heart goes out to you.

I only had the opportunity to spend short times with Hazen, but in those few times when I had the pleasure of being with him -- he was smiling and laughing. Ray worked in the same building as I did - Hamlin Hall, Housing Dept. at OU. Ray was very friendly and we had great talks together. In knowing Ray, I feel that I knew Hazen since Ray always had a great smile, so kind and seemed to love his job. Hazen seemed to be just like him.

May God bless your family and give you all the strength you need in these difficult times. I believe in the Lord. I know that Hazen is no longer suffering, is at peace in heaven. God Bless.
