

Heather J. Morrow

July 3, 1953 - April 10, 2022

Heather Joy Morrow was born in Fremantle, Western Australia on July 3, 1953 to Margaret A. (Pearce) and Robert W. Morrow, both born in England. She had two sisters, Christina Weinhaus and Melita (Lee) Raak; nephews, Brian (Melissa) and Dylan Raak; and niece, Megan (Bill) Loomis.

Heather was a graduate of Kimball High School in Royal Oak; and lived in Ferndale and Royal Oak, Michigan and in Richmond, Kentucky for the last few years. Heather enjoyed creating pottery and studied at Oakland Community College. She was passionate about animal welfare, especially for horses, and loved gardening, home renovations, music and reading.

If you would care to make a gift in Heather's memory, donations to the National Kidney Foundation, American Cancer Society, the Michigan Humane Society or Lighthouse in Pontiac would be most appreciated. She will be missed.
