“ I had the pleasure and the honor of serving Helen at the Assisted Living. She would be one of the first residents I would seek out upon coming to work. She made me feel special every day. And every day was a good day with Helen. We said our Nursery Rhymes and sang our songs. Helen could always make me smile and laugh. She loved to sing and we loved to hear her voice. Her smile and voice are missing, but she will never be forgotten.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to Eleanor Beauchamp and the family of Aunt Helen. Sincerely, the Paoli Family Aunt Helen loved animals and kids without condition. She didn't know how to act like an adult when either was around. Such a free spirit. We will miss her

“ Our sincere condolences for your loss Carl, we of course know how difficult this is as we have both been there and no matter how old we are when it happens, it is never easy.

“ I'm so glad I had the chance to become reacquainted with my Aunt Helen in the last few years. She was so cute with her "tickles"; she just made you laugh. I loved her zest for walking ...she was not going to retire and just sit, that's for sure! The last time I saw her, she told me that she loved me. I treasure that moment. Gracie
