“ My condolences to your family on the loss of your mother. I was a fellow mall walker with your dad. They were both great people. I enjoyed seeing your mother at special occasions when she was able to get out.

“ My mother was a resident at American House and passed away in December. Helen attended my mothers memorial service and offered her condolences to our family, even when it was obvious that her health was also failing. My mother, Darvina Strobridge, remarked often of the strength of her character, gentleness of her husband Jim and their close bond and love for one another. I am so sorry for your loss.
