“ So many childhood memories that can never be taken away from us. Sunday morning polkas or "Miiiiitchell" could be heard through the backyards. Swimming in the pool until our lips were purple or how about those Labor Day corn roasts?! It breaks my heart that I can't be there to say goodbye with you all. Mrs. C. you sure will be missed. Enjoy your dance with the angels. Love, Luanne

“ Rest now Aunt Helen. You fought the good fight. I remember when I was just a kid and we would be at the farm and you would say if I didn't behave you would sit on me. One time you did. Love Don
