

Helen Grubner

January 3, 1926 - May 18, 2022

Helen Shirley Grubner, age 96, of Berkley, MI, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, May 18, 2022. Beloved mother of Judith (Craig), Jo Ann, Steven, Deborah (Mark), Lisa (Timothy), Daniel (Stella), and Shelly. Grandmother of Doron, Ronit, Noga, Jerika, DeShaun, Ted, and Ari. Great-Grandmother to many great-grandchildren. Preceded in death by her large family of brothers and sisters and grandson Christopher. Helen will be missed by her many loving family members and friends.

Helen lived independently and actively to the end of her life. She lived a full, long life on her terms. She was never judgmental and always had a positive, optimistic outlook on whatever came her way.

She enjoyed mahjongg, pinochle, social media posting, meals with family, collecting ladybug objects and costume jewelry, and unusually colored and patterned sneakers. In her youth she loved to jitterbug and sing.

“ Helen was such a fun person. Loved to play mahjong and we spent many days together at the senior centers with friends doing that. Also had many lunches after. We were neighbors at the Towers for 6 years also. will miss you Helen, but know that you found a mahjong group in Heaven.

“ Mom loved to sit on her balcony and look at “her” tree. She would tell me that the bag was still stuck on the branches and when it was windy because the leaves were moving.

I will miss those little observations.

Rest well Momma. I love you 💕💕

“ Thank you for being the most loving mother, grandmother and friend that a person could possibly wish for in life. If I could change the definition of unconditional love in the dictionary it would say “Helen Shirley Grubner.”

Love you ☐💜
