“ I am so blessed to have had My Aunt Helen in my life. She was always there with unconditional love. Memories of the farm, fried green tomato's in the kitchen with cousins and laughter. Will I miss you.

“ I will miss Helen who was such a kind and gentle lady, a friend and neighbor and I feel very privileged to have known her. We shared some good times together while watching Lawrence Welk once in a while .She was always happy to do things with her family .She never said an unkind thing about any one .She will be an asset to heaven.

“ Dear Family, I am home in Illinois this morning, Tuesday July 29, and still very undecided about coming for tomorrow's service. I have such fond memories of so many times spent with Aunt Helen and all of you. I can't imagine not being there. The days on the farm were so special...I loved being with favorite cousins...sleeping enmasse on the livingroom floor and waking up to cartoons on the TV right there in front of us!...Uncle George's mashed potatoes...Aunt Helen coming home in the night from nursing and being wide-eyed and welcoming in the kitchen by morning. My love to all, Marilyn
