Tribute Wall

“ My life, especially my childhood, would not have been the same without my grandma, and I am so fortunate to have had her for almost 35 years. Weekends at her house were the best...picking veggies from the garden, walks downtown, homemade Veal Parmesan, then some peanut butter ice cream for grandpa and me while we turned on a movie, grandpa read the evening paper, and grandma inevitably dozed off in her chair...must be where I get that from! To say she will be missed is an understatement, and not a day will go by when she won't cross my mind.

“ Helen has always been an important person in my life -- sometimes like a second mom, sometimes more like a big sister. She always had a lot of advice to give me! And I loved her sense of humor with that touch of sarcasm! I mostly loved knowing that I could turn to her whenever I needed moral support. We could talk for hours on the phone!

When I shared this sad news with my sons, they both had fond memories of Helen. Tony said, "She was a wonderful person who was my first tour guide of the Midwest." Andy recalled her generosity -- great Christmas gifts during childhood -- "either Tiger memorabilia or cool wooden things, like stilts, that Dave made." She managed to bring years of happiness to me and my family.

“ I loved visiting Helen and talking about books, movies, U of M football, and family. She's been a part of my life since I was a baby. She was like a sister to me. I loved hearing her sing "Oh holy night" every Christmas Eve. I'll think of her every day and miss her with my whole heart.
