“ Dear June and Don, One of my most wonderful memories was visiting you at your house one Sunday afternoon, I think before we were confirmed, and she had fresh coconut to eat as a snack. I remember telling her I had never heard of such a thing so she should me how she opened a coconut and baked it. I remember years later trying to do it from memory and it was a disaster. Your mother was so kind to me and I am so sorry for your loss.
