“ Cheryl, I am sorry for your loss. I know the emptiness you must be feeling. I will keep your family in my prayers. May God wrap His loving arms around you and give you peace. You know that you will meet your loved one in the place that He has prepared for all of us when we are reunited in heaven. Love to you and Megan. Carol

“ To the Ciske Family: I know that there is no way you can remember me. Henry was my first boss at "Manufacturers" Bank back in 1974. My deepest sympathy to all of you in your time of loss. Henry was a great boss and an amazing man. I remember well his great smile and that wonderful laugh of his when he was really amused. Unfortunately, it being my first job and at only 17 years of age, I gave him reasons to laugh at me way too often. He will truly be missed.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of your family. I remember Henry's bright eyes and warm smile at family events. God has called him now to a better place and I know we can all be at peace with knowing that we will see him in the future. Sorry we can not be with you this week but will be praying for you all. Love, Mary and Dan

“ To Mrs. Ciske, Cheryl, Susie, Paul & Linda: I am so, so sorry. I was just home a couple of weeks ago and asked my Mom about you guys. Some of my best childhood memories are from your house and I often reference it when I talk to friends about their children. It was such a happy, loving place and I treasure the times I had there. Mr. Ciske was always so kind and patient, often despite the chaos that was around him. I was always expecting, and then amazed truly, that he didn't explode! He was a VERY nice man and I can't imagine how sad you are. Please know that you are all in my heart. There is a beautiful Sanskrit word that I love, "namaste," which roughly translates to "the spirit in me recognizes and greets the spirit in you." So with much love, I now say to all of you Mr. Ciske, too, namaste. Renee
