“ I am sorry to hear of Henry's death. I met him several times over the last few years at my mother's Dorothy Koptahouse as well as when we went out to lunch or dinner with the Senior group that liked to dance. Henry was a man that cared about others. He demonstrated this in many ways, including making sure my mother got home safely at night and by the stories he told about his family and his love for them. Please accept my sympathies on the loss of Henry.
