“ Today, Cinco de Mayo, is an awesome day to be laid to rest! Mariachis celebrate together in heaven as I am honored to tell you about Henry Muniz, the wonderful man who has been a part of my life for 27+ years. Henry and I met sharing our passion of music back in the early 90's here among his many visits to Florida. Many times we shared the stage as each one of us belted out the tunes to our favorite songs. He sang an amazing rendition of "My Way" and you could tell he meant every word he belted out with passion! haha.. He was proud of his "Latino" roots and always made it a point to ask for a "Gloria Estefan" tune among many more requests. With the the love of his life, Darlene Montgomery, cheering on, I always knew Henry to be my #1 fan. We looked forward to every visit and every laugh, twice a year! Yes, he even played a big role in being present in my wedding, decked out in his best, bright mango colored suit ever! He looked and knew he was classy, proud and handsome to say the least. I was the happiest knowing that a man whom was like a second father to me, could share such a moment with us! When my son Brandon was born, he lovingly became in my household: "Uncle Henry". Henry always reminded me of my father... A man of few spoken words, all you needed was to look at him and know you were appreciated, cared for and loved. Henry, your physical presence will be sorely missed. There are no words to describe the sadness we feel. Thank you for taking care of my friend Darlene, for the unconditional love you showed her and for always being by her side. We will continue to be there for her, supporting and loving her too. Thank you for being a part of our lives for so many years. Thank you for all your support, kindness, smiles and endless laughter! You are one of a kind in the most unique and blessed ways. Though we will miss you terribly, I know you stand at the pearly gates waiting for all of us to join you one day where we can sing together and unite in God's presence. We love you Henry....Always! “ Always enjoyed spending time in Daytona watching our kids grow up together, playing horseshoes, the rum and coke, Coors Light and just hanging out with you and Darlene. Will cherish the fond memories forever. You will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Cousin Henry, had a great time with a lot of good memories growing up in Pontiac with you and Alan. I remember we all use to spend many Sundays (after church, of course (hahah) watching the Maya & Azteca baseball clubs play against each other at JC Park....a total party!! If memory serves me correct, I think you were the one who introduced me to my first "full" glass of beer!! Thanks for that Cuz!! Needless to say, but you went much too soon.....please say hi to Tia and Tio!

Our condolences, with love and respect, to all of the Muniz families!
