“ For us, that Mr. Miller left behind, part of our day will be gone forever. I'll miss your anecdotes, songs, jokes and salutes. The fish will miss the shade from the bridge you did not build. It was an honor to have known you. Our condolences to his family, Mr. Miller was one of my heros!

“ Dear Fred Miller and extended family, I am deeply saddened by the loss of your father, grandfather, etc. I will greatly miss all of the conversations, hysterical jokes he was so good at the different accents he used when telling them, beautiful songs he used to sing in English, German, and Italian, and his warm smile. I enjoyed serving him his meals for the past 11 years at Leo's Country Oven where I work. We had formed a lovely friendship over the years and he even got to know my husband and family. I will never forget and greatly miss the kindness, and thoughtfulness Mr. Miller showed me whenever he came in to the restaurant, from the chocolate covered cherries, recipe cards, the beautiful rosary, to the interesting news articles just to name a few of the nice things he did. But most of all I'll miss his kind eyes, cute smile, and funny laugh. He truly touched my life and my heart. To you Mr. Miller I'd like to wish a final "Cio' bambino!!"....Until we meet again...

“ Mr Miller we all enjoyed seeing you almost everyday at the Country Boy Restaurant in Hazel Park. We always saw you wearing your World War II veteran hat as did some of the customers who sometimes paid for your meal as a way of saying thanks for your service. We will miss you and will remember your thoughtful sayings. Our thoughts go out to your family at this difficult time.
