“ I loved Holly McWilliams! She was an amazing person who loved to laugh. She sure did love her family too! I am heartbroken to lose such a special friend like Holly. She will be missed very, very much.
Love, Bill Stewart

“ In the early 1980's I had the pleasure of working with Holly at Universal Cutting Tools. We spent a fair amount of time talking and laughing about movies, music and life. She was very kind and funny. My sincere condolences to Jerry, Kathy, Dave and the entire McWilliams family.

“ Holly was a kind soul. She was a great listener and really cared deeply about her family and anyone she came in contact with. As a child, Holly was playful and happy. Our memory was how affectionate Holly was. She was a hugger and she held onto her baby dolls with an iron grip. My siblings also were hugged with an iron grip. As an adult, she continued her hugs and demonstrating her positive yet reserved quiet strength. Holly was so proud of her nephews and niece. She would share their successes and loved each and every one of their children. She was such a gentle person and we feel short changed that she did not have more time with us. Until we meet again, Lots of love and hugs, Renee & Joe.
