

Howard A. Ward, PhD

April 13, 1920 - June 22, 2008

Howard A. Ward, PhD, age 88, of Royal Oak, died June 22, 2008 at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak. He was born April 13, 1920 in Armada. Dr. Ward was the Professor and Dean of the evening college of business administration at the University of Detroit. He graduated with a BS degree from Central Michigan University, MA degree from Wayne State University, PhD from St. Louis University and JD from the University of Detroit. Dr. Ward served in the U.S. Army during World War II as a 1st Lieutenant in the South Pacific and also served in the Korean War. Dr. Ward is survived by his wife, Virginia; children, William Ward, Mary Ann Ward and Patrick Ward; grandchildren, Jason, Patrick and Katie. He was preceded in death by his sister, Norma Ward.

Tribute Wall

“ It was my pleasure to be a student of Dr Ward in 1953 at UD. He was such a happy and inspiring teacher that made economics an interesting subject. I can still see his face in my mind's eye. I expect to visit the Capuchins soon and will "speak" to Blessed Fr. Solanus about Howard.

Leo Linsenmeyer - March 25, 2015 at 12:00 AM