“ Thank you, Teddi. I am sorry you two could not come also. I have a picture of them on the boat with the water in the background at your reception. They had such a good time. Their last years together were special and now they are together again.LovePix

“ I am sorry we are not near enough to join the family to celebrate the wonderful Life Uncle Howard had and all the love he gave to all. I send my condolence to Laura and hope the Lord lightens your grieving knowing Uncle Howard has gone to his Heavenly home. I will NEVER forget how special he made Bill and my wedding day by singing to me and his special love Jenny Lind and the rest of the party, he made it such a special day. I am sure he and Jenny Lind are together again. God Bless.Hugs, Teddi Munslow

“ Thank You Kaci. One of the hardest things to do, when closing up his home, was taking the photographs of all the great-grandchildren down from the fridge. XoXo Erica

“ Laura - what I remember about your dad is how he was always there to help you - for as long as he could do it. Car repairs - even hanging pictures on the wall! I'm glad you had so many good years together....and praying for your healing from these recent, stressful challenging years. Do you remember when he gave you a bunch of needlework items and you gave some to me? I think of him every time I drop stitches and have to use the little "sucker" LOL - and I guess based on my knitting, I'll always be reminded of him. I love you, Laura. Carol Barton
