“ Our family lost a beautiful soul with the passing of Ida May. Honored to have called her "Aunt" (even though she was my cousin) and affectionately known as "Grandma Ida" to my girls. Up until her later years, as her memory started to fade, we were always remembered with a card at every birthday & holiday (with a little something special tucked inside for the girls). Have many wonderful memories of times spent with her, will especially miss her laugh & smile. Our thoughts and prayers are with Terry, Michelle and their families at this time. Comforted by the belief that she is with so many loved ones who have gone before her. The last words she said to me after a hospital visit were "say Hi to Joe for me". Please Ida return the favor. Love, Nicki, Kara & Danielle
