“ Ms Nicholas was my 4th grade teacher 1975at Labaron Elementary in Pontiac, Michigan. She was an awesome teacher in which I hold many fond memories of. Especially our 4th grade camping trip when my friend Janine and I were sharing a tent and noticed Ms. Nicholas coming out of her tent with curlers on her head wrapped in pj's. Ms. Nicholas always encouraged us to read as well as be creative. I was blessed to have her as a teacher and she will surely be missed.

“ My beautiful teacher. Not a day goes by that I don't think of Miss Nicholas and my family remembers her fondly. She opened up a love of reading for me since the third grade I'm now 53 and still enjoy reading. Miss Nicholas was my student teacher, kind and generous with her time. She even came to my family home for dinner which made me very proud to have her as a teacher. We would read aloud in her class and my family to this day remembers my favorite book Charolette's Web and Miss Nicholas. Never a raised voice or unkind word always smiling and polished. She gave a part of her joy to all her came in contact with her. Thank you teacher, I love you.

“ Ilene Nichols was a gracious, kind lady who helped a poor black teacher, become even better. It was a sacrifice personally and professionally for Ilene. I thank God for her caring and help.
